Introducing eMedica's Medical Wellness Device

A Tech- Enabled Medical Solution, Fueled with Remarkable Features to Cater to Various Medical Needs Without Side-Effects Can Bring an Incredible Revolution in the Medical World.

HUMAN BODY IS ELECTRIFIED

The elements in our bodies, like Sodium, Potassium, Calcium, and Magnesium, have a specific electrical charge. Almost all of our cells can use these charged. A disruption in electrical parameters can lead to illness. For example, in order for the heart to pump, cells must generate electrical charge that allow the heart muscle to contract at the right time.

The human body, every organ, every bone, every tissue, every cell has its own resonant frequency. However, when an organ is out of time or out of tune with the rest, then the entire body is affected. This harmony leads to states of disease and disintegration. In this frequency plays an important role to identify the actual problem in the human body.

CELL CHARGE TABLE

The human body's voltage is 13 V.. The largest human body voltage is 17 V.

Human Body is healthy between -50mv to-90mv.

From -50 onwards the healing process starts.

E-MEDICA MECHANISM

The Current Flows inside the body along with the combination of a specific & dedicated Frequency-Voltage-Current for the target disease.

The Blood stream transmits this specific combination program to the entire body, but it corrects cell parameters & repairs the target organ by recharging its cell to the optimal state. Eventually the organ starts functioning to its most efficient state & the disease is eliminated from the cellular levels.

CURRENT – VOLTAGE – FREQUENCY

01

VOLTAGE

Just as required for the organ, a specific Voltage is transmitted through eMedica device, which helps in correcting the targeted cell parameters of the organ. By enhancing the cell-voltage, it increases the potential of the cell & eventually, the efficacy is enhanced & the organ is rejuvenated. (The voltage decides the “power” in the cells).

02

CURRENT

A specific (researched) Micro-Current is transmitted through our blood stream using eMedica device, it burns the fat deposits (plaque) in the blood & on the wall of the blood vessel. (electrical current flows due to the exchange of electrons between atoms. As electrons move through a conductor, some collide with atoms, other electrons or impurities. These collisions cause resistance and generate heat.)

03

FREQUENCY

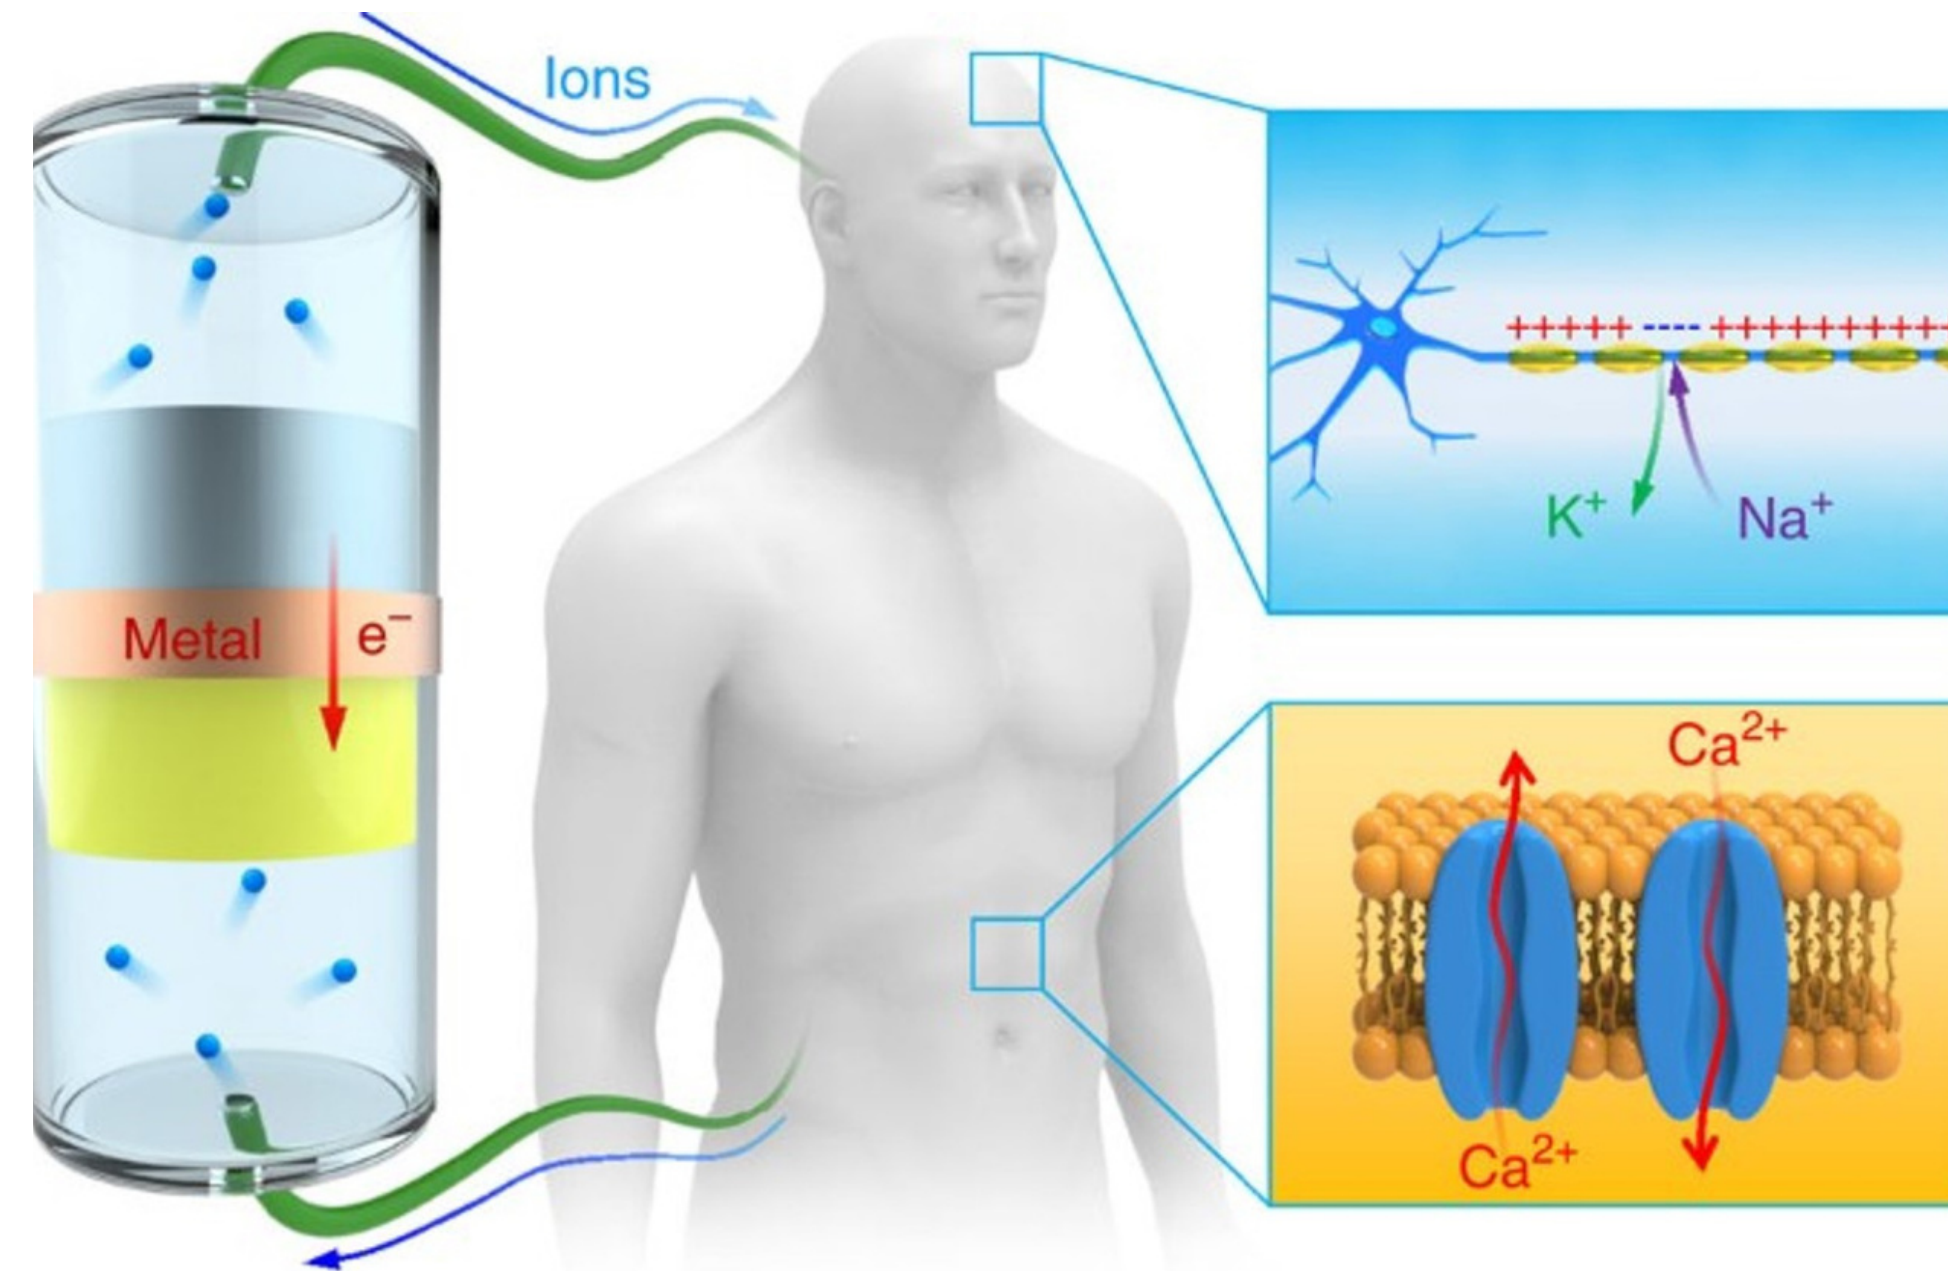

To improve the Cell Function of the targeted Cell of the organ, a specific (researched) Frequency is transmitted in the body through eMedica device. The Efficiency is eventually increased to its optimal level. (As a matter of fact, the reference healthy frequencies are indeed about 40 – 400 kHz, while the frequency shifts oscillate between about 20 and 250 kHz).

eMedica Mechanism

When your cells lose their charge, your body can't operate correctly, just like a battery. eMedica therapy recharges your cells so they can get back to work restoring your health and vitality.

Positive ions can turn in to free radicals in the body which can damage healthy cells and increase the acidity of the blood. This is because they oxidise the cells, raising the levels of lactic acid which can cause many illnesses including cancer.

It modulates the electromagnetic frequency of a human body to its optimal potential. It treats various diseases in the human body by correcting the cell parameters using a dedicated & specified Current, Voltage & Frequency, for each disease.
